Ms. Vahle swore in the applicants (See Sign In Sheet). This application was heard on February 24th and the applicants stated that the business had been sold. At that time, the Board instructed the applicants to bring the license in and start the process all over again with a new application. Pending items are: the corrected Retail Sales Tax License and the final Occupancy Permit. The licensee stated that the Fire Marshal came out and inspected the first floor and the second floor. He also stated he does not use the second floor because it is not practical and he may use it later, so he will need to correct his application and clarify there is an upstairs. Inspector Delauter stated he did see alcohol being served after February 24th. He told the owners to remove all alcohol from the premises. Mr. Kim asked the owner to remove the alcohol and they have now removed it. He asked his servers not to serve alcohol but there was a miscommunication and alcohol was served. There was also a complaint that Mr. Kim was drinking with employees after hours. He admitted that was happening. Chairman Zimmerman was concerned about Mr. Kim serving after he was told not to serve, and also that he and his employees were drinking after hours. Then the Inspector told Mr. Kim to remove all alcohol and it was still in the establishment two weeks later. Ms. Vahle will call

Washington County for a background check. Mr. Kim took two weeks to turn the license in. The Board did not want to go forward with a decision until the additional information has been corrected. Also, they wanted the Board Member Rick Stup to be able to hear the case as well.
